

I support and completely agree with notion that Mr. Napurano presents in RM-10860. CW absolutely should be retained as both a requirement and a privelege of Amateur Radio licensees. However, to fulfill this request, it appears that no action is necessary on the part of FCC, except to not adopt any of the other proposals that would drop or reduce CW testing requirements. I urge that FCC not adopt any proposal which would drop or reduce CW testing requirements.